

You Do More Work.
You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of a family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

His Burden of Care.

"I guess I'm about the unluckiest fellow alive" asserted the long, narrow, mournful looking individual.

"What seems to be the trouble?" inquired his sympathetic companion, ordering something consoling for them both.

"I'm jest naturally unlucky—Fate's got it in fer me. I'll leave it to you if a guy deserves this kinder luck. A year ago I gets tired o' livin' in boardin' houses 'an' I ups 'an' gets married. Now fer a home 'an' goody boarding house vittels, say I. An' before six months was past my wife opened a boardin' house to support us. Ain't that fierce? Why couldn't the woman git some other kind of work to do?"

He brushed his hand across his eyes lest a briny drop might embitter his beer.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Where the Damage Was.

Tommy's mother heard a terrible noise on the front stairs and hurrying to see what it was, she was just in time to see her son land on his back at the bottom of the stairs.

"Oh, darling!" she cried, "where are you hurt?"

"Oh, muvver," sobbed the little fellow, "my feelings ith hurt."

CHARGED WITH 12 MURDERS

French Detectives Are Unraveling the Past of Modern Bluebeard.

VICTIMS ARE BURNED

Escaped Lover, Destined to Become Thirteenth Victim, Is Expected to Give Startling Testimony at Trial.

Paris.—French detectives continue the investigations into the strange case of Henry Landru, under arrest charged with the murder of 11 women and one boy. Landru is being detained in prison while the police are completing the net of evidence which, they assert, will show this modern Bluebeard to be the arch-criminal of modern times. The police have also taken into custody Mile. Fernade Segent, who was with Landru at the time of his arrest. She is believed to know much of Landru's past affairs and, according to the police, was destined to be his thirteenth victim. Paris is said to be impatient for the trial, which is expected to reveal a tale of shocking and frightful inhumanity.

Bones and Ashes of Victims.

It is believed by the police that most of the victims of Landru disappeared at his secluded country home, Villa Gambais. There detectives have discovered charred bits of women's clothing, burned bones of human beings, ribs and pieces of ribs, arm bones, shin bones and human teeth. In numerous ash piles, believed to contain the remains of some of the victims, detectives have discovered bits of melted glass, hairpins and teeth.

In the kitchen of the home were found meat saws, such as only a butcher keeps, and a kitchen stove which, in the opinion of the police, served to burn the bodies. In the cellar great stains of blood were found, covered with sand. Discovery of a large can filled with tar has led the police to the theory that Landru used tar with coal to create a fire sufficiently hot to consume bodies.

Seized and Handcuffed Landru.

Sensational Arrest of Bluebeard.

Landru was arrested in Paris, where he was living under the name of Guillot. Two detectives entered his home on pretense of being eager to purchase his automobile. Once they were inside, they seized and handcuffed Landru and told him he was under arrest. Shouting and screaming and trying to tear off the handcuffs, he protested against the arrest.

LOVERS REFUSE TO PART

Pennsylvania Girl Burns Self to Death as Sweetheart Dies by Bullet.

Northampton, Pa.—Two lovers, Nava Newhard, sixteen years old, and Palmer Lilly, nineteen years old of Northampton, Pa., died in a tragic manner as the result, it is asserted, of a suicide pact. The parents of the girl had refused to permit her to accept the attention of Lilly.

The young people walked to Hometown, a mile away from their home, where they sat down by the roadside and ended their lives. The girl, with the assistance of her lover, it is thought, set fire to her dress and was burned to death. Then young Lilly, according to the theory of the coroner, shot himself several times through the head, dying a few minutes later.

The pair left a note on the ground in which they told of their purpose to die, as they could not live apart.

Found Lost Safe and $25,000.

San Francisco.—Ten years ago E. C. McCormick of this city lost his office safe, containing between $25,000 and $30,000 in bonds. The safe failed to follow him when he moved. Recently an attorney came upon a strong box that no key would fit. A locksmith opened it and revealed the missing bonds.

WHERE BEGGING IS AN ART

Syrians Are Adept, and Thieving in All Branches is a Flourishing Business.

The well-fed German out here (in Syria) used to call the Turkish soldier an "artiste de faim." The poor Syrian is a genius at it. Begging is the most flourishing trade in Syria, and the only one at which the craftsman gets a proper apprenticeship. Interspersed among the real starvers you will find child actors who would win a furore in London. They lie in an attitude of death in a woman's lap, their well-rounded limbs carefully covered with verminous rags. You will see them ten minutes later, when mamma has gone home for lunch, playing touch.

Thieving in all its branches—piracy from off-loading ships, fraud, smuggling of stolen goods, pilfering and pocket picking—had such a boom on the arrival of the British as was never known in the best Turkish days, though now it is waning beneath a somewhat determined police surveillance. Animals? They talk at home of selling army horses out here. Well, the Arab and even the Syrian knows the value of his horse and that while he is in working order it pays to keep him so. That is the utmost limit; and as to work horses, or any other animals, it would need all the staff of the free of eyesores.—Anglo-French Review.

Where Husbands Wear Wedding Rings.

The women in Brazil have not equal suffrage, but they have an equality with the men of their country which is not enjoyed by their North American sisters. All Brazilian husbands are expected to wear their wedding rings as conscientiously as their wives, and generally they do so. The ring is a plain gold band, the same as that worn by wives in the United States. The women in Brazil unanimously are of the opinion that this is about the last word in equality.

Admirer of Idleness.

"Dat League of Nations iden sort o' gets to my sympathy in one way," remarked Plodding Pete.

"What d'ye mean?" inquired Meandering Mike.

Their Use.

"They say lead pencils carry germs."
"Well, they are the very things to draw them."

While the fool takes things as they come, the wise guy goes after what he wants.

No Neighbors.

"Life in a new country is lonely."
"No neighbors to talk with."
"Or about."

One strong point of many a woman is at the end of a hatpin.

Being Exact.

"Don't you think Bliggins has a great deal of idle curiosity?"
"Curiosity, yes. But never idle."

To a Fault.

"He's generous to a fault."
"What do you mean by that?"
"He doesn't care what clothes his wife goes without so long as he can head a subscription list."

Its Kind.

"Cities now have a new sky line."
"How so?"
"They have a dirigible route."

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the BLUES FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician knowing what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Honest Envy.

"How I envy that great singer!" exclaimed Senator Sorghum.

"But he expresses no thought of his own."

"That's the point. He can hold audiences spellbound for hours without risk of expressing a single idea that might prove embarrassing to his salary prospects."

Woman's Wit.

"Nexdore's wife has saved up some money for a nest egg."

"Is that why you call her an old hen?"—Boston Evening Transcript.

Heat and sand files will take a man's mind off most any other trouble.
